

GARY GRIESSER - SUGGESTED INTRODUCTION

Following a 27-year career as a professional educator, Gary Griesser has now completed his twelfth year in a new career as a full time inspirational speaker.

He comes to us equipped with a Bachelor's Degree in Music Education from Georgetown College in Georgetown, Kentucky, and two Master's Degrees in Education and School Administration from the University of Kentucky in Lexington.

He brings experience as a teacher, guidance counselor, assistant principal, principal, supervisor, assistant superintendent, deputy superintendent and acting superintendent in the local school district. He also brings statewide experience as Associate Commissioner in the Department of Education in Frankfort, Kentucky. (I guess they kept looking for a job he could do!!)

Recently, the Freedoms Foundation of Valley Forge, Pennsylvania awarded the prestigious George Washington Honor Medal to Gary for individual achievement in the area of patriotism.

In these first 17 years of speaking, Gary has made presentations to over 1,700 groups in 47 states. He was a general session speaker at the American Association of School Administrators annual convention in New Orleans; a keynote speaker to the National Teacher Hall of Fame induction ceremony in Emporia, Kansas and provided music for the Gideon International Convention in Dallas, Texas.

He has shared the platform with Billy Graham, Johnny Cash, Zig Ziglar, former Secretary of Education William Bennett and now _____(you) !!!

Gary and his wife, Marie, make their home in Burlington, Kentucky. Join me in welcoming Gary Griesser.
